*Fund sources

Auerbach Fund for Jewish Identity: Irving and Hertha Auerbach were respected scientists, community members and long-time members of both Congregation B'nai Israel and Congregation Albert. They are especially remembered for their dedication to creating and sustaining the libraries at their synagogues.

Galit Mares Scholarship Fund: The fund was established in 1995 by Etti Mares Benvenisti in memory of her daughter, Galit Mares. Israeli-born Etti came to America at age twenty and eventually made her home in Albuquerque where she launched a career with a focus on children and families within the University of New Mexico Child Psychiatry program. Etti passed away in 2012.
